

HOME IS WHERE THE HEARTACHE IS

V1: Home is where the heartache is
I have come to know
Subconscious mind so clever
As evil seeds of doubt it sows
I thought I had a vision
A dream to which I'd fly
Deep down I knew twould never be
Held within my tears my sighs

CH: You see...
Home is where the heartache is
Home is where I know
Safety in the feeling of never letting go
I am abused by lack of love by that so and so
But my home is where the heartache is
And I'm never letting go

V2: Home is where the heartache is
How then to break free
Trite words of advice I hear
From those around of me
But they don't know the powers
That hold me tie me down
And it's better to survive than risk
The dangers of an unknown town

CH:

BR: So how did you do it
How did you get up leave
What happened were you scared scarred
Did you grieve
And what about uncertainty
When she came to bite
How did you get to where I see
You smile your demons exorcised

CH: CH:
